Reunion

This very short photo essay example tells the story of two friends reuniting. It may start a discussion about how long they've known each other, when they saw each other last or things like whether or not they've just shared good news with one another.

Homeless Youth

While this example conveys powerful emotions about youth homelessness. It may spark discussions on what we can do to stop it, what things cause it to happen and even whether or not we've known or seen homeless youth in the communities we live, work or go to school in.
